Learn about Ethnobotany at May 5 nature program

GENEVA, IL — Learn about the connection between humans and plants at an interactive nature program on ethnobotany.

Plant identification, folklore, history and science blend together during this “Learn from the Experts” nature program on Saturday, May 5, from 2-3:30 p.m. at Brewster Creek Forest Preserve. We’ll start with an indoor presentation, and then head into the woods to learn about edible, medicinal and other uses of native plants.

Learn From the Experts programs are for ages 18 and above. Advance registration is required. Registration fee is $10 per person. Call 630-444-3190 or e-mail programs@kaneforest.com to register.

Brewster Creek Forest Preserve is located at 6N921 IL Rte. 25, St. Charles.

Learn from the Experts programs are taught by experts in their respective fields and offer in-depth learning opportunities about our local ecology. The programs are offered through a partnership by the Forest Preserve District of Kane County, St. Charles Park District and Geneva Park District.
