Learn about the Natural History of Illinois: 200 Years of Change program, Nov. 3

GENEVA, IL — Learn how Illinois' native landscapes have changed since statehood, during a Nov. 3 nature program by the Forest Preserve District of Kane County.

Director of Natural Resources Ben Haberthur will describe the ecological transformation of Illinois and explain why natural ecosystems are rare today. He will also discuss region-wide efforts to restore Illinois' splendid prairies, woodlands and wetlands.

The Natural History of Illinois: 200 Years of Change, Learn from the Experts nature program, will take place Saturday, Nov. 3, from 1 - 2:30 p.m. It will be held at the Barbara Belding Lodge, located within Brewster Creek Forest Preserve at 6N921 IL Rte. 25, St. Charles.

This Learn from the Experts program is for ages 18 and up. The fee is $10 per person. Advance registration is required. Call 630-444-3190 or email programs@kaneforest.com to register.

Learn from the Experts programs are taught by experts in their respective fields and offer in-depth learning opportunities about our local ecology. The programs are offered through a partnership with the Forest Preserve District of Kane County, St. Charles Park District and Geneva Park District.
