Kick off Halloween Season with a Spooky, Family-Friendly Adventure

GENEVA, IL — Get ready to embrace the Halloween season with a naturalist-led hike, followed by stories and crafts in the woods on Friday, Oct. 6, from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Hampshire Forest Preserve.

Experience an exciting evening featuring a hike where you'll learn about and search for fascinating nighttime animals. After the hike, the Ella Johnson Memorial Library librarians will share interesting stories, including family-friendly spooky tales. There will also be a nature-themed craft. To add a sweet touch, donuts and cider will be served during the storytelling session.

This program is open to all-ages and free to attend. Hampshire Forest Preserve is located at 44W780 Allen Rd., Hampshire. Advance registration is required. To register for “Nocturnal Nature & Stories,” call 630-444-3190 or email programs@kaneforest.com.
