Welcome the spring season with a naturalist-led hike

GENEVA, IL — The spring equinox brings with it the promise of more sunlight, warmer temperatures and a sense of renewal.

Join a Forest Preserve District naturalist for an invigorating and informative spring hike! During this program, we'll discuss the reasons behind the seasonal change, share stories about spring cultural traditions and explore wildlife habitats.

The program, "Welcome Spring!" is on Sunday, March 20, from 10-11 a.m. at Johnson's Mound Forest Preserve. Advance registration is required. Call 630-444-3190 or email programs@kaneforest.com to register. This program is free and for all-ages.

Johnson's Mound Forest Preserve is located at 41W600 Hughes Rd., Elburn.
