Get Wild About Turkeys this Fall

GENEVA, IL — Join us for a delightful program that celebrates the stunning and impressive wild turkey!

At this time of year, many people think of turkeys as the roasted centerpieces of their family feasts, but there's much more to discover! Join District naturalists for a guided hike as we discuss the many differences between the domestic turkeys we enjoy for dinner and the wild turkeys that inhabit our forest preserves.

Program Details:

- Date: Friday, Nov. 22
- Time: 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.
- Location: Pingree Grove Forest Preserve, 14N187 Rte. 20, Pingree Grove

This hike is perfect for nature lovers of all ages and offers a chance to immerse yourself in the rich colors and sounds of fall.

Space is limited for this free program. Advance registration is required.
